

Video script:

How to make an informal phone call!

Tom: Hello, Tom speaking.

Rachel: Hi, Tom, Tom?

Tom: Hi!

Rachel: Amanda's twin brother?

Tom: Yep!

Rachel: Hi, it's Rachel, remember from school.

Tom: Rachel? Ah, yeah, yeah, I haven't seen you in ages.

Rachel: Yeah, how's it going?

Tom: It's going very well. Erm, yeah, I've just been working really hard, and, er, my job's going great and...

Rachel: Where are you working now?

Tom: Oh, it's just at a new school. I'm just, erm, helping out with some of the younger children and some of the sports activities.

Rachel: Fantastic! Wow! It's been ages.

Tom: Oh, and you? How have you been?

Rachel: Yeah, not too bad. I'm actually ringing, I'm after Amanda actually. I'm supposed to talk to her about a concert we're going to next week. Is she there?

Tom: No, she's not in at the moment, I'm afraid.

Rachel: Rubbish!

Tom: Can I take a message or anything?

Rachel: Yeah, please, that would be great. If you could just get her to call me, erm, have you got a pen?

Tom: Yeah. Ready.

Rachel: My number's 6311 87982.

Tom: OK.

Rachel: Do you want me to repeat it?

Tom: Yes, please.

Rachel: 6311.

Tom: 6311.

Rachel: 87982.

Tom: 87982. Got you! OK.

Rachel: Fantastic.

Tom: Well, lovely to speak to you. I've got to run off now. I'm actually in the middle of cooking dinner, so...

Rachel: Great. It was really nice to speak to you too.

Tom: All right, you too. I'll pass that message on.

Rachel: Bye!

Tom: Bye, bye!